

Welcome to a seminar on

Intermediaries in Imperial Expansion: Connections and Encounters on the U.S. Frontiers, 1876–1916

with

Dr. Stefan Eklöf Amirell

Associate Professor of History
Senior Research Fellow at Centre for Concurrences in Colonial and Postcolonial Studies in History

Linnaeus University, Växjö

Thursday, March 7, 2019

13.15

Room 16-1044, Department of English English Park Campus

This project (financed by Vetenskapsrådet) focuses on a U.S. Cavalry officer, Hugh Lenox Scott (1853–1934), a soldier-diplomat who served on the American Plains, in Cuba, the Philippines and on the Mexican border in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century. Based on his ability to establish trust and to forge close ties to the people and nations that he encountered, Scott's personal archive gives unique insights into the contacts, relations and perspectives of non-American actors in the frontier zones during the most intense phase of the American imperial expansion.

Arranged by the Swedish Institute for North American Studies (SINAS), Department of History, Uppsala University & Swedish Association for American Studies (SAAS)